SEASON'S GREETINGS, FRIENDS AND FAMILY, It's been awhile, so we will try to catch you up a bit on what the Andersons have been doing. The most exciting was the arrival of our first grandson Jack. Here are some of the things we did in the last two years. We have also done a lot of moving—living quarters, offices, and jobs. Gordon moved his office; Mary Jane, Tami, Jayna, and Greta all changed jobs, and Evan's internship turned into a full-time job.

MOVING: It seems everyone has been moving around. Gordon moved his Paragon House office from Roseville to Vadnais Heights and reduced the average commute from half an hour to five minutes. The new place is less than half the size, so some compacting and downsizing was necessary. Tami and Jaga moved back to Asheville, NC from New Jersey so Jack could be raised in their own home, rather than a hectic New York City. Jayna moved twice, first into an apartment two blocks from Fabulous Ferns, where she is working, and next into a house with a friend in West Saint Paul. Greta moved back home for a while after her return from a year of global travels. Then she went down to help with Jack and ended up staying in Asheville and renting a house there with two other girls. Evan rented an apartment in Norwalk Connecticut. It is about a 35 mile commute to his job in the Bronx. We also sold Grandma Anderson's house in Center City, where Gordon grew up.

There have been a lot of visits to North Carolina to see Jack. Gordon and Mary Jane visited after he was born, Greta moved down to help take care of him, Evan spent a week there for Thanksgiving, and our family Christmas will be there this year.
